Text: John 15:9–17

⁹[Jesus said:] “As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. ¹⁰If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and abide in his love. ¹¹These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. ¹²“This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. ¹³Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. ¹⁴You are my friends if you do what I command you. ¹⁵No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you. ¹⁶You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. ¹⁷These things I command you, so that you will love one another.”

Who/Whose

...are the friends of Jesus?

...chose us to be friends of Jesus?

...name are we to use when we ask the Father for whatever?

What

...does Christ command us to do?

...is the greatest act of love?

...has Christ made known to us?

When

...are we to love God and others?

Where

...does God’s love abide?

What does this mean

““As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love.”

“¹⁰If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and abide in his love.”

“¹¹These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full.”

““This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. ¹³Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends.”

“¹⁴You are my friends if you do what I command you. ¹⁵No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you.”

“¹⁶You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you.”

“¹⁷These things I command you, so that you will love one another.”
